

Weekly Weather Watch (17th October to 22nd October, 2026)

National Emergency Operation Centre – National Disaster Management Authority

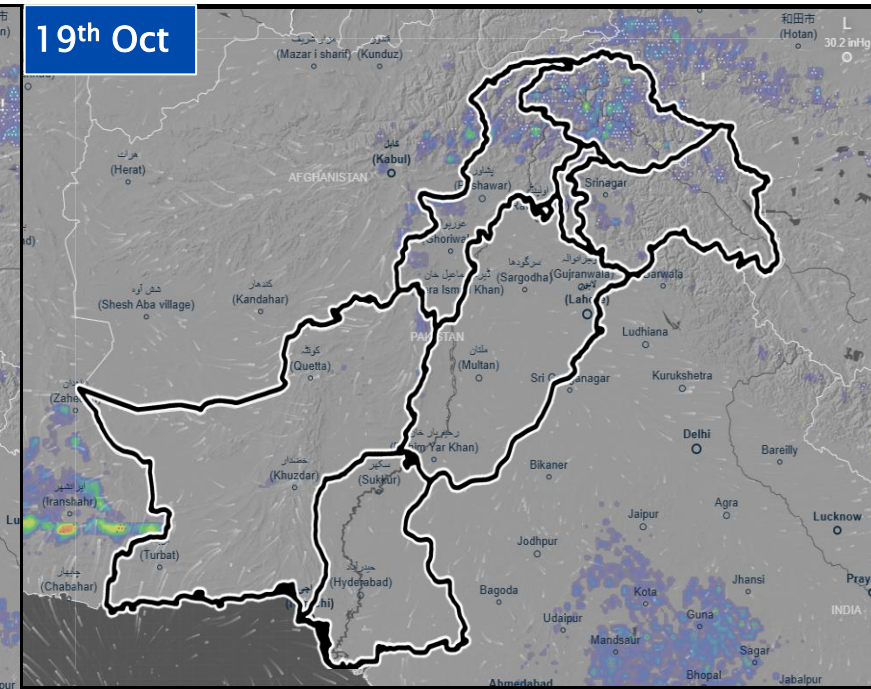

17th Oct

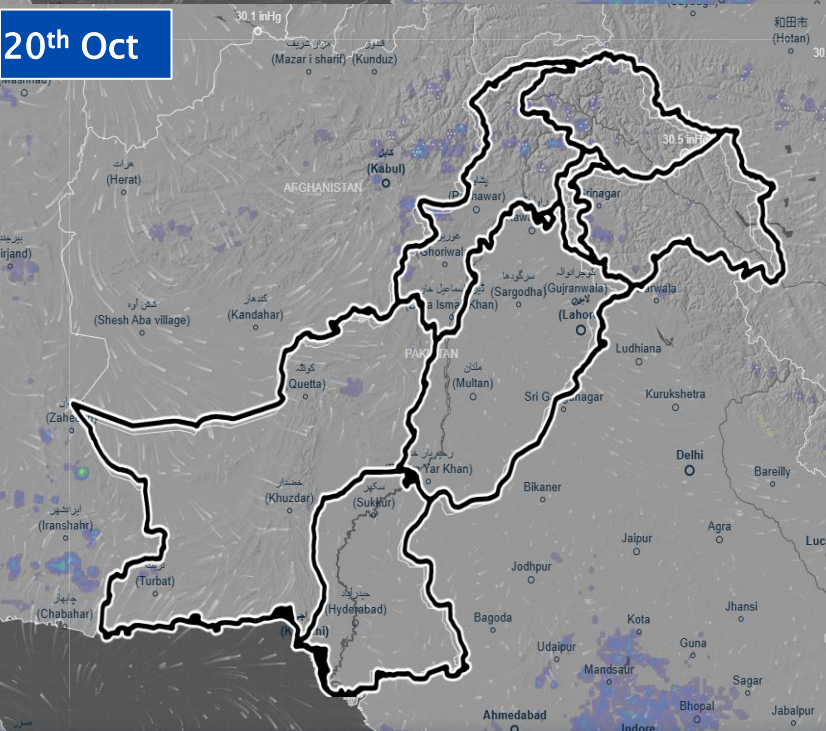

18th Oct

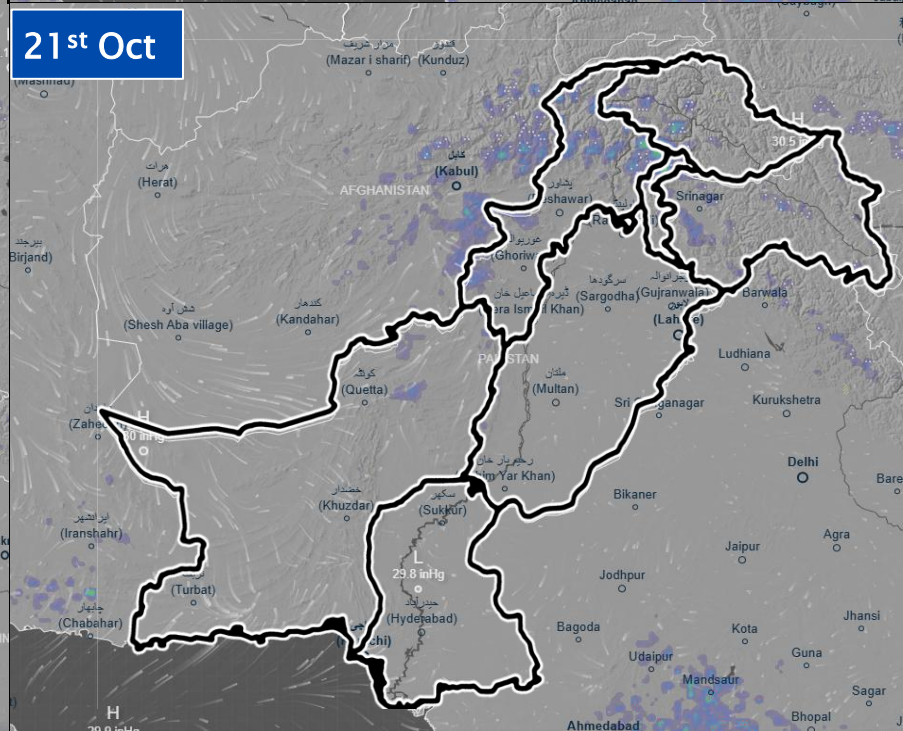

19th Oct

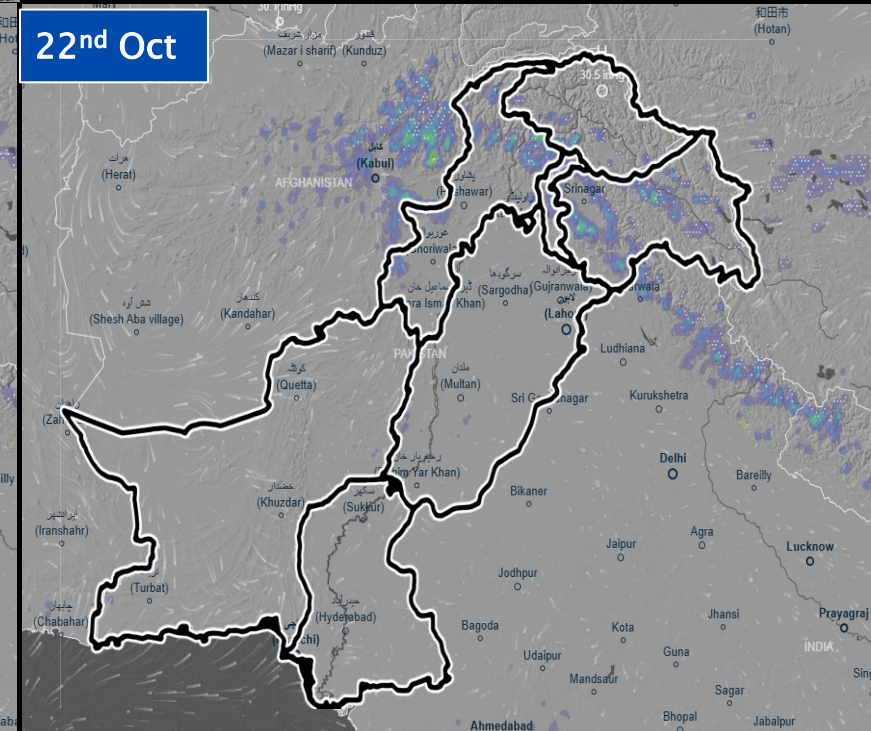

20th Oct

21st Oct

22nd Oct

Punjab & ICT:

The ICT and Punjab province is expected to remain mainly dry. Temperatures are likely to remain relatively cool especially at night.

Balochistan:

The province is expected to remain mainly dry. Temperatures are likely to remain relatively cool especially at night.

Sindh:

The province is expected to remain warm and dry.

KP:

The province is expected to experience isolated rain-wind/thunderstorm activity in districts including Chitral, Dir, Swat, Kohistan, Shangla, Battagram, Mansehra, Abbottabad, Parachinar, and surrounding areas. Temperatures are expected to remain relatively cool especially at night.

GB & AJK:

GB is expected to experience isolated rain-wind/thunderstorm activity in districts including Gilgit, Hunza, Ghizer, Diamer, Astore, Skardu, Shigar, and surrounding areas. AJK is expected to remain mainly dry. Temperatures are likely to remain relatively cool especially at night.