

Weekly Weather Watch (23rd October to 28th October, 2026)

National Emergency Operation Centre – National Disaster Management Authority

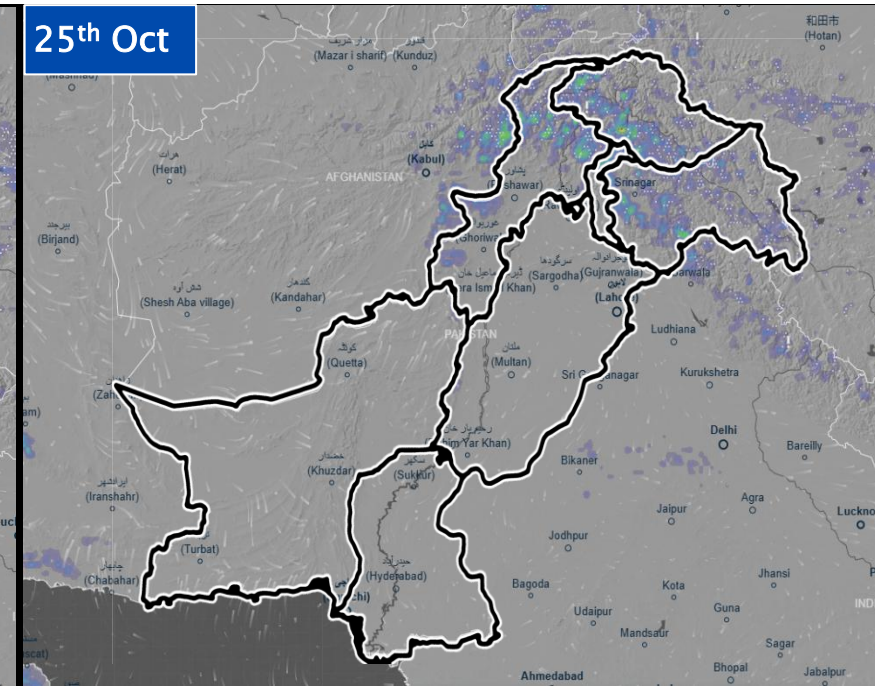

23rd Oct

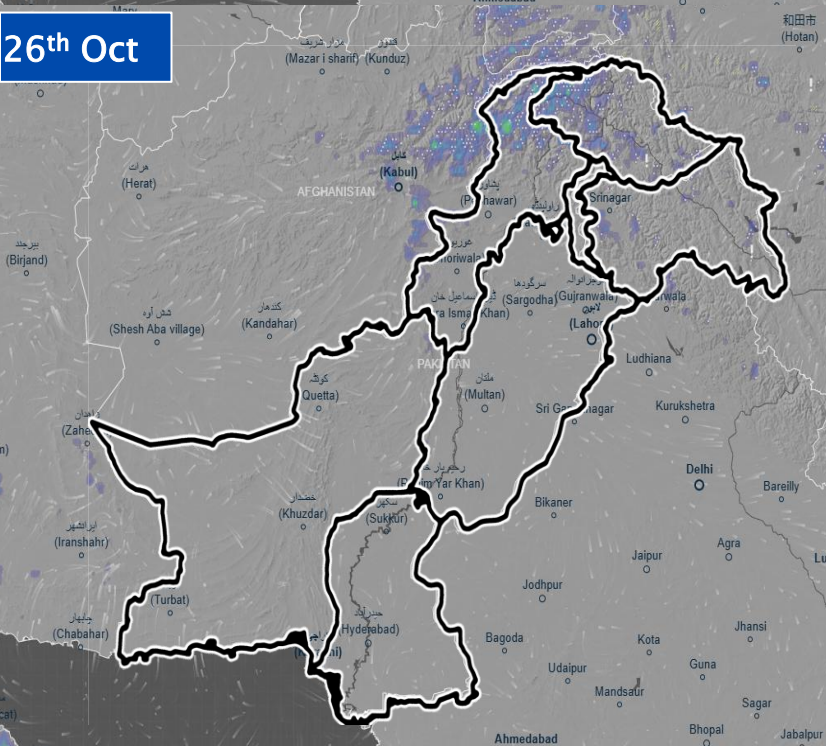

24th Oct

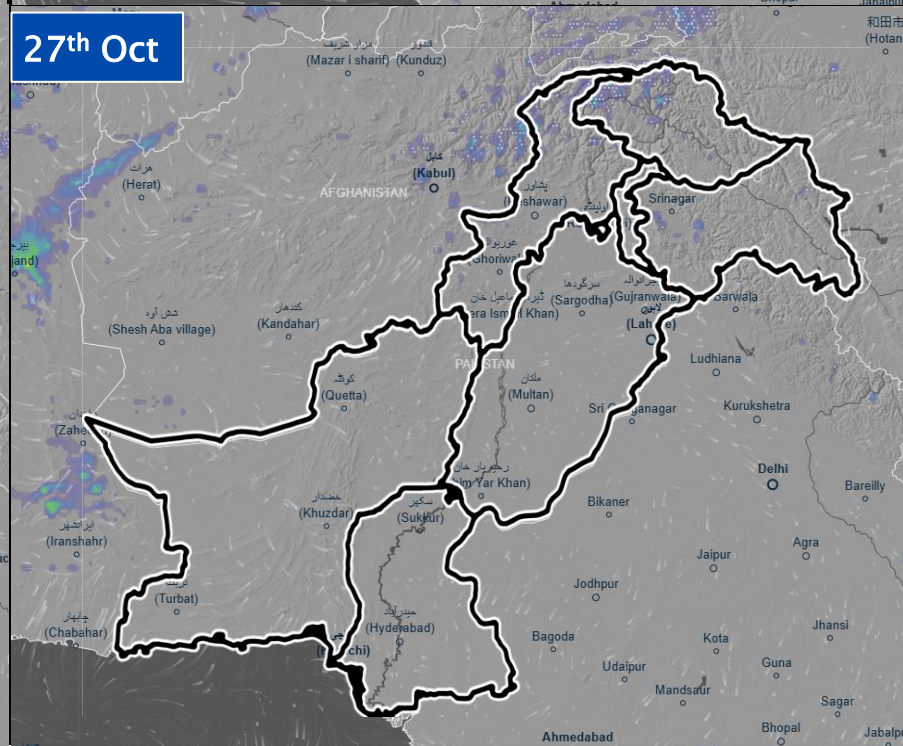

25th Oct

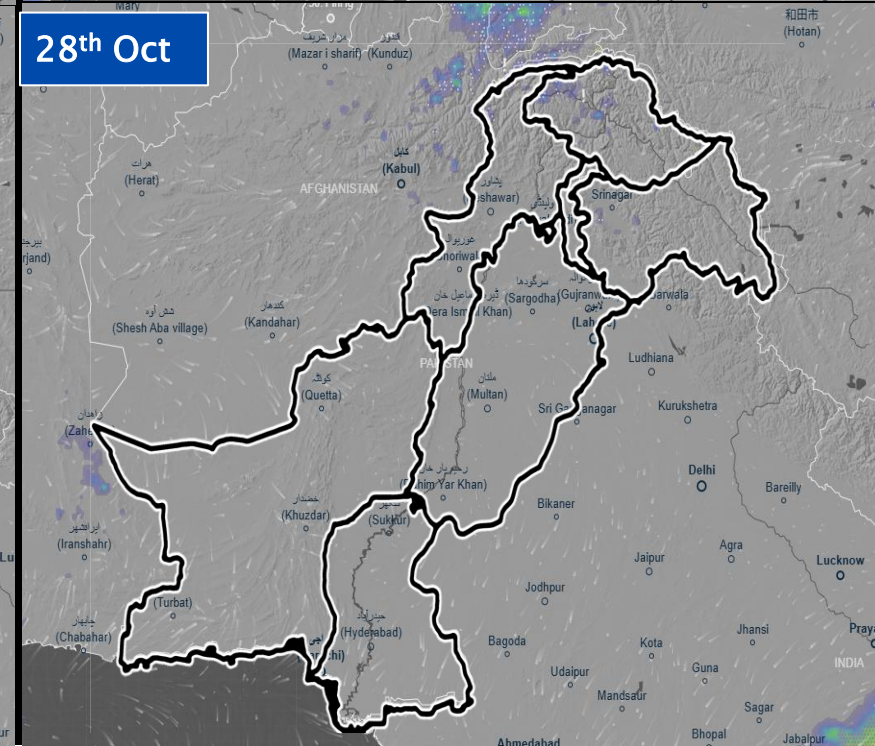

26th Oct

27th Oct

28th Oct

Punjab & ICT:

The ICT and Punjab province is expected to remain mainly dry. Temperatures are expected to remain relatively warm during day time with cool nights.

Balochistan:

The province is expected to remain mainly dry. Temperatures are expected to remain relatively warm during day time with cool nights.

Sindh:

The province is expected to remain mainly dry. Temperatures are likely to remain relatively cool especially at night.

KP:

The province is expected to experience light and isolated rain-wind/thunderstorm activity in areas including Chitral, Dir, Swat, Kohistan, Shangla, Battagram, Mansehra, Abbottabad, Haripur, Parachinar and surroundings. Temperatures are expected to remain relatively warm during day time with cool nights.

GB & AJK:

GB is expected to experience isolated rain-wind/thunderstorm activity in districts including Gilgit, Hunza, Ghizer, Diamer, Astore, Skardu, Shigar, Neelum Valley, Muzaffarabad, Poonch, Bhimber, Mirpur, Kotli, Bagh, Garhi Duppatta and surrounding areas. Temperatures are expected to remain cool.