

Weekly Weather Watch (29th October to 3rd November, 2026)

National Emergency Operation Centre – National Disaster Management Authority

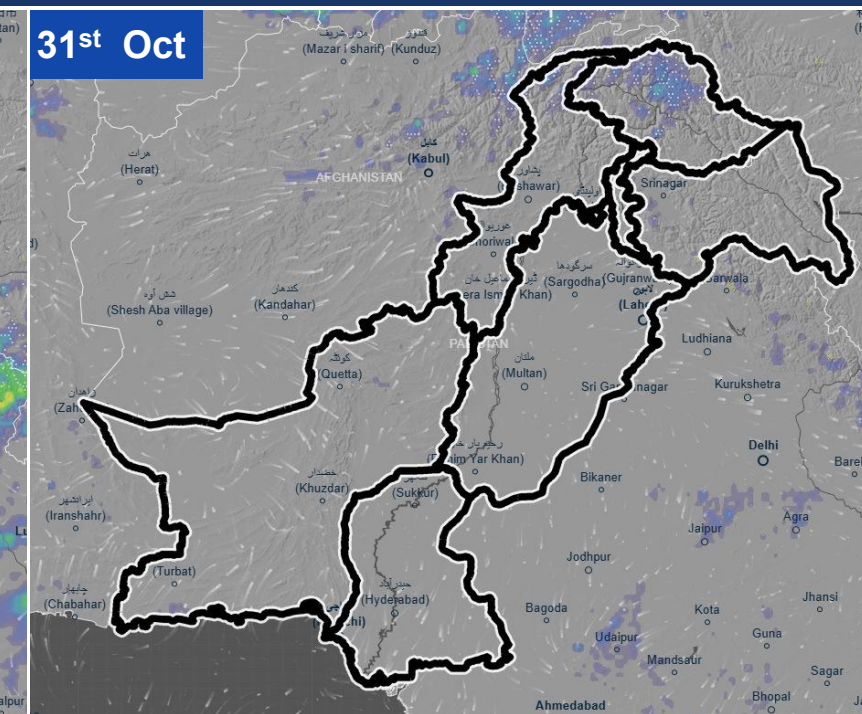

29th Oct

30th Oct

31st Oct

Punjab & ICT:

The ICT and Punjab province is expected to remain mainly dry. Temperatures are likely to remain relatively cool especially at night.

Balochistan:

The province is expected to remain mainly dry. Temperatures are likely to remain relatively cool especially at night.

Sindh:

The province is expected to remain mainly dry. Temperatures are likely to remain relatively cool especially at night.

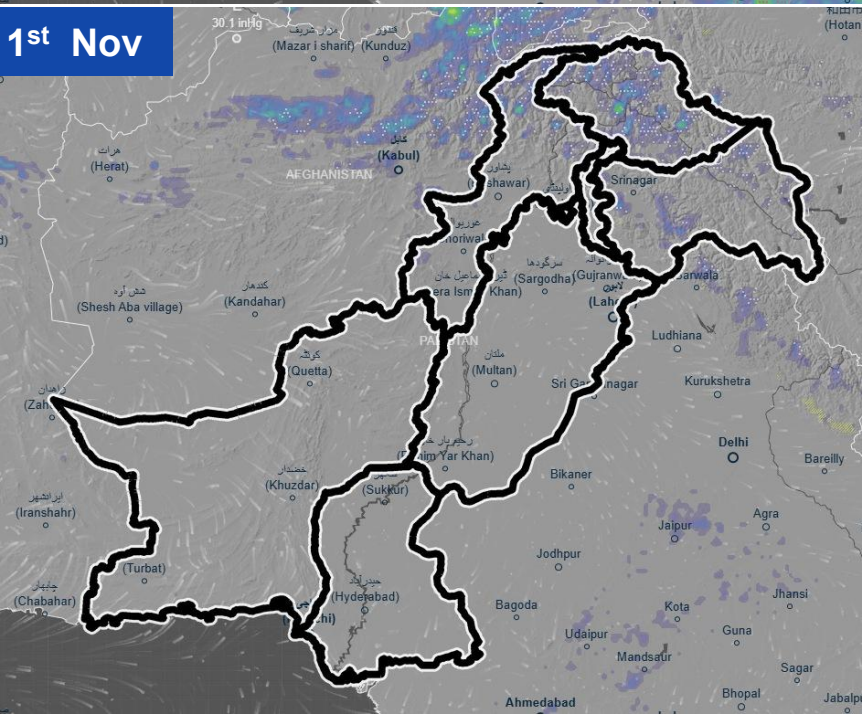

KP:

The province is expected to experience isolated rainfall, thunderstorm, and windstorm in districts including Chitral, Dir, Mingora, Batkhela, Kohistan and surrounding areas. Temperatures are expected to remain relatively cool especially at night.

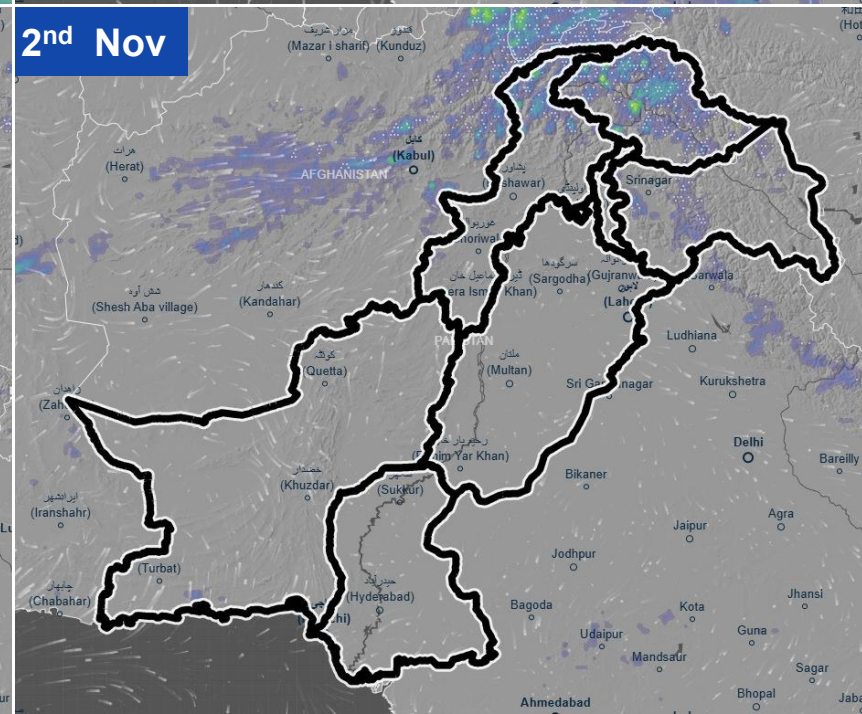

GB & AJK:

The province is expected to experience isolated rainfall, thunderstorm, and windstorm in districts including Ghanche, Ghizer, Diamer, Gilgit, Hunza, Astore, Skardu, Shigar, and surrounding areas. AJK is expected to remain mainly dry. Temperatures are likely to remain relatively cool especially at night.

1st Nov

2nd Nov

3rd Nov

