

Extreme Temperature/Heat Wave Spain

Affected Areas

Sevilla, Cordoba, Jaen Spain

August 11th -14th 2025

Hazard Types

Heat Wave

Hazard Summary

A severe heatwave is gripping southwestern Spain, with dangerously high temperatures persisting across multiple cities. Badajoz and Seville are experiencing extreme highs of 43°C, while Cáceres is at 42°C, Córdoba at 41°C, and Talavera de la Reina at 40°C. Jaén is recording 39°C, and Granada 36°C, posing serious health risks, especially for vulnerable groups.